

Communications Commission

Purpose:

The Communications Commission handles the parish public and media relations and promotes evangelization. To glorify GOD, the Father, through the various instruments of social communication print broadcast and cyberspace media. It is responsible for supplying information to local and diocesan media. This Commission is responsible for preparing newsletters and mailings necessary to keep parishioners informed.

Volunteer Opportunities:

- Help with Parish Newsletter
- Write articles for Newsletter
- Submit preprinted articles of interest as fillers for Newsletter
- Assist Hispanic Community in developing a Newsletter
- Develop and maintain Web Site for St. Joseph's